

Sinclair Broadcasting should be held accountable for providing air time for pro-Bush documentaries immediately before the election. This is unfair to the American people and voting public. Local broadcast media should not be forced to support one election candidate over another.

Thank you.